

Code of Conduct

Article 1: Behaviour at the event

1. All trainees and third-party participants of association events are required to adhere to safety protocols and other regulations and obligations imposed either by the venue, the organizers or the association itself;
2. All trainees and third-party participants of association events must treat other attendees, organizers, and workers with all due respect;
3. It is strictly prohibited at any association event to assault other attendees, organizers, and workers physically or verbally;
4. Any infractions of the above mentioned rules, may lead to disciplinary actions. The TC/LC is free to choose which disciplinary consequence; it can include but is not limited to the following:
 - (i) Exclusion from the next event organized by the TC/LC;
 - (ii) Upon repeated offence, the TC/LC may decide to exclude the person from events or the next month;
 - (iii) Upon repeated and/or grave offence, the TC/LC may decide to exclude the person from the Euroball;
 - (iv) Upon grave offence, if the offending party is an Association member, the TC/LC may decide to revoke that person's membership card;
 - (v) The concerned trainee has a right to defend themselves in front of the TC/LC, having to prove why their behaviour was justified or defensible.
5. The TC/LC will do its best to assure the safety and protection of all attendees at its events;
6. The TC/LC is not liable for any major safety infraction at events organized by third parties which are promoted by the TC/LC;
7. All people who wish to attend an event have to register first if so declared by the TC/LC for each particular event:
 - (i) Showing up without being registered or proof of registration will lead to denied access to the event;
 - (ii) Should a person force their entrance to an event regardless, the rules lined out in Article 1, point 4, i-v apply and the TC/LC is free to take disciplinary action against any such individual.

Article 2: Event entrance & Payments

1. The TC/LC has the right to restrict access to certain events based on venue capacity or on membership status;
2. To reduce the organisational burden and assure the safety of the attendees, all trainees will have to sign up to an event if the TC/LC deems this necessary using a form provided by the organisers of the event;
3. A failure to attend an event after registering through the TC/LC published registration form can lead to disciplinary action from the TC/LC as outlined in Article 1, point 4, i-v;
4. Depending on the financial burden the event carries the TC/LC also has the right to demand an entrance fee to pay for the necessary expenses linked to the event;
5. In the case where the event requires prior payment of the entrance fee, a failure to submit a valid proof of payment of the full ticket price within 24 hours of registering for the event gives the TC/LC the right to liberate the reserved spot and sell it to another interested party;
6. A failure to pay the full amount of the entrance fee to the organizers before attending an event can lead to the exclusion and/ or removal from the event;
 - (i) In the case of repeated and/or grave offense the rules outlined under Article 1, point 4, i-v come into effect;
7. The TC will not grant refunds for any tickets or purchases, regardless of the reason or the event. There is a possibility of reselling the ticket for a price either equal or strictly inferior to the original purchasing price. This is subject to the TC/LC's approval and the TC/LC must be notified by email as soon as a replacement has been found. The ticket transfer is only valid if approved by at least one TC member. In case of a price difference between T-Card holders and non-T-Card holder, the following rules apply:
 - (i) Tickets can be easily transferred from a non T-Card holder to a non T-Card holder and from a T-Card holder to a T-Card holder;
 - (ii) In the case of a transfer from a non T-Card holder to a T-Card holder, the TC will not cover the price difference between non T-Card holders and T-Card holders and the original purchaser must bear this cost;
 - (iii) In the case of a transfer from a T-Card holder to a non T-Card holder, the secondary purchaser (the non T-Card holder) must cover the price difference between non T-Card holders and T-Card holders and must transfer this difference at once to the TC bank account.
